

THE MYANMAR POST OFFICE ACT.

[INDIA ACT VI, 1898.]

(1st July, 1898.)

[Amendment : 02.10.1956, 05.10.1960, 30.03.1963, 10.09.1977, 18.06.1989]

CHAPTER I.

PRELIMINARY.

1. This Act extends to the whole of the Union of Myanmar and applies also to all citizens of the Union wherever they may be.

<Amendment 18.06.1989>

2. In this Act, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context,-

(a) the expression "Director-General" means the Director-General of Posts and Telegraphs; and

(b) the expression "inland." used in relation to a postal article, means-

(i) posted in the Union of Myanmar and addressed to any place in the Union of Myanmar or to any place for which a post office is established by the President of the Union beyond the limits of the Union of Myanmar; or

(ii) posted at any post office established by the President of the Union beyond the limits of the Union of Myanmar and addressed to any place for which any such post office is established or to any place in the Union of Myanmar :

Provided that the expression "inland" shall not apply to any class of postal articles which may be specified in this behalf by the President of the Union by notification in the Gazette, when posted in or at or addressed to any places or post offices which may be described in such notification;

(c) the expression "mail bag" includes a bag, box, parcel or any other envelope or covering in which postal articles in course of transmission by post are conveyed, whether it does or does not contain any such article;

(d) the expression "mail ship" means a ship employed for carrying mails, pursuant to contract or continuing arrangement, by the Government of the Union of Myanmar or the Government of any foreign country;

- (dd) the expression “ mail aircraft” means an aircraft as defined in the Myanmar Aircraft Act, employed for carrying mails pursuant to a contract or continuing arrangement, by the Government of the Union of Myanmar or the Government of any foreign country;
- (e) the expression “officer of the post office” includes any person employed in any business of the post office or on behalf of the post office;
- (f) the expression “postage” means the duty chargeable for the transmission by post of postal articles;
- (g) the expression “postage stamp” means any stamp provided by the President of the Union for denoting postage or other fees or sums payable in respect of postal articles under this Act, and includes adhesive postage stamps and stamps printed, embossed, impressed or otherwise indicated on any envelope, wrapper, postcard or other article;
- (h) the expression “post office” includes every house, building, room, carriage or place used for the purposes of the post office, and every letter-box provided by the post office for the reception of postal articles;
- (i) the expression “postal article” includes a letter, postcard, newspaper, book, pattern or sample packet, parcel and every article or thing transmissible by post;
- (j) ****
- (k) the expression “the post office” means the department established for the purpose of carrying the provisions of this Act into effect and presided over by the [Director-General].

<Amendment 05.10.1960, 30.03.1963, 18.06.1989>

3. For the purposes of this Act,-

- (a) a postal article shall be deemed to be in course of transmission by post from the time of its being delivered to a post office to the time of its being delivered to the addressee or of its being returned to the sender or otherwise disposed of under Chapter VII;
- (b) the delivery of a postal article of any description to a postman or other person authorized to receive postal articles of that description for the post shall be deemed to be a delivery to a post office; and
- (c) the delivery of a postal article at the house or office of the addressee or to the addressee or his servant or agent, or other person considered to be authorized to receive the article according to the usual manner of delivering postal articles to the addressee, shall be deemed to be delivery to the addressee.

CHAPTER II.PRIVILEGE AND PROTECTION OF THE GOVERNMENT.

4. (1) Wherever within the Union of Myanmar posts or postal communications are established by the President of the Union, the President of the Union shall have the exclusive privilege of conveying by post, from one place to another, all letters, except in the following cases, and shall also have the exclusive privilege of performing all the incidental services of receiving collecting, sending, despatching and delivering all letters, except in the following cases, that is to say:-

- (a) letters not more than five in number sent by a private friend in his way, journey or travel, to be delivered by him to the person to whom they are directed without hire, reward or other profit or advantage for receiving carrying or delivering them;
- (b) letters solely concerning the affairs of the sender or receiver thereof sent by a messenger on purpose; and
- (c) letters solely concerning goods or property, sent either by sea or by land [or by air], to be delivered with the goods or property which the letters concern, without hire, reward or other profit or advantage for receiving, carrying or delivering them:

Provided that nothing in this section shall authorize any person to make a collection of letters excepted as aforesaid for the purpose of sending them otherwise than by post.

(2) For the purposes of this section and section 5, the expression “letters” includes postcards.

<Amendment 02.10.1956, 18.06.1989>

5. Wherever within the Union of Myanmar posts or postal communications are established by the President of the Union, the following persons are expressly forbidden to collect, carry, tender or deliver letters, or to receive letters for the purpose of carrying or delivering them, although they obtain no hire, reward or other profit or advantage for so doing, that is to say:-

- (a) common carriers of passengers or goods, and their servants or agents, except as regards letters solely concerning goods in their carts or carriages; and
- (b) [owners and masters of vessels and pilots or other persons in charge of aircraft] sailing or passing on any river or canal in the Union of Myanmar, or between any ports or places in the Union of Myanmar, and their servants or agents, except as regards letters solely concerning goods on board, and except as regards postal articles received for conveyance under Chapter VIII.

<Amendment 18.06.1989>

6. The Government shall not incur any liability by reason of the loss, misdelivery or delay of, or damage to, any postal article in course of transmission by post, except in so far as such liability may in express terms be undertaken by the Government as hereinafter provided; and no officer of the post office shall incur any liability by reason of any such loss, misdelivery, delay or damage, unless he has caused the same fraudulently or by his wilful act or default.

CHAPTER III.

POSTAGE.

7. (1) The President of the Union may, by notification in the Gazette, fix the rates of postage and other sums to be charged in respect of postal articles sent by the inland post under this Act, and may make rules as to the scale of weights, terms and conditions subject to which the rates so fixed shall be charged: Provided that the highest rate of postage, when prepaid, shall not exceed the rate set forth for each class of postal articles in the First Schedule.
- (2) Unless and until such notification as aforesaid is issued, the rates set forth in the said Schedule shall be the rates chargeable under this Act.
- (3) The President of the Union may, by notification in the Gazette, declare what packets may be sent by the inland post as book, pattern and sample packets within the meaning of this Act.
8. The President of the Union may, by rule,-
- (a) require the prepayment of postage on inland postal articles or any class of inland postal articles, and prescribe the manner in which prepayment shall be made;
 - (b) prescribe the postage to be charged on inland postal articles when the postage is not prepaid or is insufficiently prepaid;
 - (c) provide for the redirection of postal articles and the transmission by post of articles so redirected, either free of charge or subject to such further charge as may be specified in the rules; and
 - (d) prescribe the fees to be charged for the "express delivery" of postal articles, in addition to, or instead of, any other postage chargeable thereon under this Act.
- Explanation.- "Express delivery" means delivery by a special messenger or conveyance.
9. (1) The President of the Union may make rules providing for the registration of newspapers for transmission by inland post as registered newspapers.

(2) For the purpose of such registration, every publication, consisting wholly or in great part of political or other news, or of articles relating thereto, or to other current topics, with or without advertisements, shall be deemed a newspaper, subject to the following conditions, namely:-

- (a) that it is published in numbers at intervals of not more than thirty-one days; and
- (b) that it has a bona fide list of subscribers.

(3) An extra or supplement to a newspaper, bearing the same date as the newspaper and transmitted therewith, shall be deemed to be part of the newspaper:

Provided that no such extra or supplement shall be so deemed unless it consists wholly or in great part of matter like that of the newspaper and has the title and date of publication of the newspaper printed at the top of each page.

Explanation.- Nothing in this section or in the rules thereunder shall be construed to render it compulsory to send newspapers by the inland post.

10.(1) Where arrangements are in force with any foreign country, for the transmission by post of postal articles between the Union of Myanmar and such country, the President of the Union may, in conformity with the provisions of such arrangements, declare what postage rates and other sums shall be charged in respect of such postal articles, and may make rules as to the scale of weight, terms and conditions subject to which the rates so declared shall be charged.

(2) Unless and until such declaration as aforesaid is made, the existing rates and regulations shall continue in force.

<Amendment 30.03.1963, 18.06.1989>

11. (1) The addressee of a postal article on which postage or any other sum chargeable under this Act is due shall be bound to pay the postage or sum so chargeable on his accepting delivery of the postal article, unless he forth with returns it unopened:

Provided that, if any such postal article appears to the satisfaction of the Director-General to have been maliciously sent for the purpose of annoying the addressee, he may remit the postage.

(2) If any postal article on which postage or any other sum chargeable under this Act is due is refused or returned as aforesaid, or if the addressee is dead or cannot be found, then the sender shall be bound to pay the postage or sum due thereon under this Act.

<Amendment 05.10.1960>

12. If any person refuses to pay any postage or other sum due from him under this Act in respect of any postal article, the sum so due may, on application made by an officer of the post office authorized in this behalf by the written order of the Director-General, be recovered for the use of the post office from the person so refusing: as if it were a fine imposed under this Act by any Magistrate having jurisdiction where that person may for the time being be resident: and the Director-General may further direct that any other postal article, not being on [Government] service, addressed to that person shall be withheld from him until the sum so due is paid or recovered as aforesaid.

<Amendment 05.10.1960>

13. When a postal article, on which any duty of customs is payable, has been received by post from any place beyond the limits of the Union of Myanmar, and the duty has been paid by the postal authorities at any customs-port or elsewhere, the amount of the duty shall be recoverable as if it were postage due under this Act.

<Amendment 18.06.1989>

14. In every proceeding for the recovery of any postage or other sum alleged to be due under this Act in respect of a postal article,-

(a) the production of the postal article, having thereon the official mark of the post office denoting that the article has been refused, or that the addressee is dead or cannot be found, shall be prima facie evidence of the fact so denoted, and

(b) the person from whom the postal article purports to have come shall, until the contrary is proved, be deemed to be sender thereof.

15. The official mark on a postal article denoting that any postage or other sum is due in respect thereof to the post office of the Union of Myanmar, or to the post office of any foreign country, shall be prima facie evidence that the sum denoted as aforesaid is so due.

<Amendment 30.03.1963, 18.06.1989>

CHAPTER IV.

POSTAGE STAMPS.

16. (1) The President of the Union shall cause postage stamps to be provided of such kinds and denoting such values as he may think necessary for the purposes of this Act.

(2) The President of the Union may make rules as to the supply, sale and use of postage stamps.

- (3) In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the fore-going power, such rules may-
- (a) fix the price at which postage stamps shall be sold;
 - (b) declare the classes of postal articles in respect of which postage stamps shall be used for the payment of postage or other sums chargeable under this Act;
 - (c) prescribe the conditions with regard to perforation, defacement and all other matters subject to which postage stamps may be accepted or refused in payment of postage or other sums;
 - (d) regulate the custody, supply and sale of postage stamps;
 - (e) declare the persons by whom and the terms and conditions subject to which postage stamps may be sold; and
 - (f) prescribe the duties and remuneration of persons selling postage stamps.
17. (1) Postage stamps provided under section 16 shall be deemed to be stamps issued by Government for the purpose of revenue within the meaning of the Penal Code, and, subject to the other provisions of this Act, shall be used for the prepayment of postage or other sums chargeable under this Act in respect of postal articles, except where the President of the Union directs that prepayment shall be made in some other way.
- (2) Where the President of the Union has directed that prepayment of postage or other sums chargeable under this Act in respect of postal articles may be made by prepaying the value denoted by the impressions of stamping machines issued under his authority, the impression of any such machine shall likewise be deemed to be a stamp issued by Government for the purpose of revenue within the meaning of the Penal Code.

CHAPTER V.

CONDITIONS OF TRANSMISSION OF POSTAL ARTICLES.

18. (1) The President of the Union may, by rule, provide for the redelivery to the sender, without reference to the consent of the addressee and subject to such conditions (if any) as may be deemed fit, of any postal article in course of transmission by post.
- (2) Save as provided by any rules that may be made under sub-section (1), the sender shall not be entitled to recall a postal article in course of transmission by post.
19. (1) Except as otherwise provided by rule and subject to such conditions as may be prescribed thereby, no person shall send by post any explosive, dangerous, filthy, noxious or deleterious substance, any sharp instrument not properly protected, or any living creature which is either noxious or likely to injure postal articles in course of transmission by post or any officer of the post office.

(2) No person shall send by post any article or thing which is likely to injure postal articles in course of transmission by post or any officer of the post office.

20. No person shall send by post-

(a) any indecent or obscene printing, painting, photograph, lithograph, engraving, book or card, or any other indecent or obscene article, or

(b) any postal article having thereon, or on the cover thereof, any words, marks or designs of an indecent, obscene, seditious, scurrilous, threatening or grossly offensive character.

21. (1) The President of the Union may make rules as to the transmission of articles by post.

(2) In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may-

(a) specify articles which may not be transmitted by post;

(b) prescribe conditions on which articles may be transmitted by post;

(c) provide for the detention and disposal of articles in course of transmission by post in contravention of rules made under clause (a) or clause (b);

(d) provide for the granting of receipts for, and the granting and obtaining of certificates of, posting and delivery of postal articles and the sums to be paid, in addition to any other postage, for such receipts and certificates; and

(e) regulate covers, forms, dimensions, maximum weights, and enclosures, and the use of postal articles, other than letters, for making communications.

(3) Postal articles shall be posted and delivered at such times and in such manner as the Director-General may, by order, from time to time appoint.

<Amendment 05.10.1960>

22. (1) Where the despatch or delivery from a post office of letters would be delayed by the despatch or delivery therefrom at the same time of book, pattern or sample packets and parcels, or any of them, such packets or parcels, or any of them, may, subject to such rules as the President of the Union may make in this behalf, be detained in the post office so long as may be necessary.

(2) Where separate parcel posts are established, parcels may be forwarded and conveyed by them, being detained, if necessary, in the post office for that purpose.

23. (1) Any postal article sent by post in contravention of any of the provisions of this Act may be detained and either returned to the sender or forwarded to destination, in each case charged with such additional postage (if any) as the President of the Union may, by rule, direct.

(2) Any officer in charge of a post office or authorized by the Director-General in this behalf may open or unfasten any newspaper or any book, pattern or sample packet, in course of transmission by post, which he suspects to have been sent by post in contravention of section 20, clause (a), or of section 21, or of any of the provisions of this Act relating to postage.

(3) Notwithstanding anything in sub-section (1)-

(a) any postal article sent by post in contravention of the provisions of section 19 may, under the authority of the Director-General, if necessary, be opened and destroyed; and

(b) any postal article sent by post in contravention of the provisions of section 20 may be disposed of in such manner as the President of the Union may by rule direct.

<Amendment 05.10.1960>

24. Except as otherwise provided in this Act, where a postal article suspected to contain any goods of which the import by post or the transmission by post is prohibited by or under any enactment for the time being in force, or anything liable to duty is received for delivery at a post office, the officer in charge of the post office shall send a notice in writing to the addressee inviting him to attend, either in person or by agent, within a specified time at the post office, and shall in the presence of the addressee or his agent, or if the addressee or his agent fails to attend as aforesaid then in his absence, open and examine the postal article:

Provided, first, that if the Director-General so directs in the case of any post office or class of post offices, the officer in charge of the post office shall call in two respectable persons as witnesses before he opens a postal article in the absence of the addressee or his agent:

Provided, secondly, that in all cases a postal article, after being opened under this section, shall be delivered to the addressee, unless it is required for the purpose of any further proceeding under this or any other law or enactment for the time being in force, and that the opening of the postal article and the circumstances connected therewith shall be immediately reported to the Director-General.

<Amendment 05.10.1960>

24A. The President of the Union may, by general or special order, empower any officer of the post office, specified in such order, to deliver any postal article, received from beyond the limits of the Union of Myanmar and suspected to contain anything liable to duty, to such Customs authority as may be specified in the said order, and such Customs authority shall deal with such article in accordance with the provisions of the Sea Customs Act or of any other law for the time being in force.

<Amendment 18.06.1989>

25. Where a notification has been published under section 19 of the Sea Customs Act in respect of any goods of any specified description, or where the import or export into or from the Union of Myanmar of goods of any specified description has been prohibited or restricted by or under any other enactment for the time being in force, any officer of the post office empowered in this behalf by the President of the Union may search, or cause search to be made for any such goods in course of transmission by post, and shall deliver all postal articles reasonably believed or found to contain such goods to such officer as the President of the Union may appoint in this behalf, and such goods may be disposed of in such manner as the President of the Union may direct. In carrying out any such search, such officer of the post office may open or unfasten, or cause to be opened or unfastened, any newspaper or any book, pattern or sample packet in course of transmission by post.

<Amendment 18.06.1989>

26. (1) On the occurrence of any public emergency, or in the interest of the public safety or tranquillity, the President of the Union or any officer specially authorized in this behalf by the President of the Union may, by order in writing, direct that any postal article or class or description of postal articles in course of transmission by post shall be intercepted or detained, or shall be disposed of in such manner as the authority issuing the order may direct.

(2) If any doubt arises as to the existence of a public emergency, or as to whether any act done under sub-section (1) was in the interest of the public safety or tranquillity, a certificate signed by a Secretary to the Government shall be conclusive proof on the point.

27. (1) Where a postal article is received by post from any place beyond the limits of the Union of Myanmar-

(a) bearing a fictitious postage stamp, that is to say, any facsimile or imitation or representation of a postage stamp, or

(b) purporting to be prepaid with any postage stamp which has been previously used to prepay any other postal article, the officer in charge of the post office at which the postal article is received shall send a notice to the addressee inviting him to attend, either in person or by agent, within a specified time at the post office to receive delivery of the postal article.

- (2) If the addressee or his agent attends at the post office within the time specified in the notice and consents to make known to the officer in charge of the post office the name and address of the sender of the postal article and to redeliver to the officer aforesaid the portion of the postal article which bears the address and the fictitious or previously used postage stamp, or, if the postal article is inseparable from the stamp, the entire postal article, the postal article shall be delivered to the addressee or his agent.
- (3) If the addressee or his agent fails to attend at the post office within the time specified in the notice, or, having attended within that time, refuses to make known the name and address of the sender or to redeliver the postal article or portion thereof as required by sub-section (2), the postal article shall not be delivered to him, but shall be disposed of in such manner as the President of the Union may direct.

Explanation.- For the purposes of this section, the expression “postage stamp” includes any postage stamp for denoting any rate or duty of postage of any [* * * *] foreign country, and the impression of any stamping machine provided or authorized for the like purpose by or under the authority of the Government of such [] country.

<Amendment 18.06.1989>

27A. No newspaper printed and published in the Union of Myanmar without conforming to the rules laid down in the Press (Registration) Act shall be transmitted by post.

<Amendment 18.06.1989>

27B. (1) Any officer of the post office authorized by the Director-General in this behalf may detain any postal article in course of transmission by post which he suspects to contain-

- (a) (i) any newspaper or book as defined in the Press (Registration) Act, or
- (ii) any document, containing any seditious matter, that is to say, any matter the publication of which is punishable under section 124 A of the Penal Code; or

- (b) any newspaper as defined in the Press (Registration) Act edited, printed or published otherwise than in conformity with the rules laid down in that Act; and shall deliver any postal article so detained to such officer as the President of the Union may appoint in this behalf.

- (2) Any officer detaining any postal article under the provisions of sub-section (1) shall forthwith send by post to the addressee of such article notice of the fact of such detention.

(3) The President of the Union shall cause the contents of any postal article detained under sub-section (1) to be examined, and, if it appears to the President of the Union that the article contained any newspaper, book or other document of the nature described in clause (a) or clause (b) of sub-section (1), may pass such orders as to the disposal of the article and its contents as he may deem proper, and, if it does not so appear, shall release the article and its contents, unless the same be otherwise liable to seizure under any law for the time being in force:

Provided that any person interested in any article detained under the provisions of clause (a) of sub-section (1) may, within two months from the date of such detention, apply to the President of the Union for release of the same, and the President of the Union shall consider such application and pass such orders thereon as he may deem to be proper:

Provided also that, if such application is rejected, the applicant may, within two months from the date of the order rejecting the application, apply to the High Court for release of the article and its contents on the ground that the article did not contain any newspaper, book or other document containing any seditious matter.

(4) In this section "document" includes also any painting, drawing or photograph, or other visible representation.

<Amendment 05.10.1960>

27C. Every application made under the second proviso to sub-section (3) of section 27B shall be heard and determined in the manner provided by sections 99D to 99F of the Code of Criminal Procedure by a Special Bench of the High Court constituted in the manner provided by section 99C of that Code.

27D. No order passed or action taken under section 27B shall be called in question in any Court otherwise than in accordance with second proviso to sub-section (3) of that section.

CHAPTER VI.

REGISTRATION, INSURANCE AND VALUE-PAYABLE POST.

28. The sender of a postal article may, subject to the other provisions of this Act, have the article registered at the post office at which it is posted, and require a receipt therefor; and the President of the Union may, by notification in the Gazette, direct that, in addition to any postage chargeable under this Act, such further fee as may be fixed by the notification shall be paid on account of the registration of postal articles.

29. (1) The President of the Union may make rules as to the registration of postal articles.
- (2) In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may-
- (a) declare in what cases registration shall be required;
 - (b) prescribe the manner in which the fees for registration shall be paid; and
 - (c) direct that twice the fee for registration shall be levied on the delivery of a postal article required to be registered on which the fee for registration has not been prepaid.
- (3) Postal articles made over to the post office for the purpose of being registered shall be delivered, when registered, at such times and in such manner as the Director-General may, by order, from time to time appoint.

<Amendment 05.10.1960>

30. The President of the Union may, by notification in the Gazette, direct-
- (a) that any postal article may, subject to the other provisions of this Act, be insured at the post office at which it is posted against the risk of loss or damage in course of transmission by post, and that a receipt therefor shall be granted to the person posting it ;and
 - (b) that, in addition to any postage and fees for registration chargeable under this Act, such further fee as may be fixed by the notification shall be paid on account of the insurance of postal articles.
31. The President of the Union may, by notification in the Gazette declare in what cases insurance shall be required, and direct that any postal article containing anything required to be insured, which has been posted without being insured, shall be returned to the sender or shall be delivered to the addressee, subject to the payment of such special fee as may be fixed by the notification:
- Provided that the levy of such special fee as aforesaid shall not impose any liability upon [*] the Government in respect of the postal article.
32. (1) The President of the Union may make rules as to the insurance of postal articles.
- (2) In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may-
- (a) declare what classes of postal articles may be insured under section 30 ;
 - (b) fix the limit of the amount for which postal articles may be insured; and
 - (c) prescribe the manner in which the fees for insurance shall be paid.
- (3) Postal articles made over to the post office for the purpose of being insured shall be delivered, when insured, at such places and times and in such manner as the Director-General may, by order, from time to time appoint.

<Amendment 05.10.1960>

33. Subject to such conditions and restrictions as the President of the Union may, by rule, prescribe, the Government shall be liable to pay compensation, not exceeding the amount for which a postal article has been insured, to the sender thereof for the loss of the postal article or its contents, or for any damage caused to it in course of transmission by post:

Provided that the compensation so payable shall in no case exceed the value of the article lost or the amount of the damage caused.

34. The President of the Union may, by notification in the Gazette, direct that, subject to the other provisions of this Act and to the payment of fees at such rates as may be fixed by the notification, a sum of money specified in writing at the time of posting by the sender of a postal article shall be recoverable on the delivery thereof from the addressee, and that the sum so recovered shall be paid to the sender:

Provided that the Government shall not incur any liability in respect of the sum specified for recovery unless and until that sum has been received from the addressee.

Explanation.- Postal articles sent in accordance with the provisions of this section may be described as “value-payable” postal articles.

35. (1) The President of the Union may make rules as to the transmission by post of value-payable postal articles.

(2) In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may-

- (a) declare what classes of postal articles may be sent as value-payable postal articles;
- (b) direct that no postal article shall be so sent unless the sender declares that it is sent in execution of a bona fide order received by him;
- (c) limit the value to be recovered on the delivery of any value-payable postal article;
- (d) prescribe the form of declaration to be made by the senders of value-payable postal articles, and the time and manner of the payment of fees;
- (e) provide for the retention and repayment to the addressee in cases of fraud of money recovered on the delivery of any value-payable postal article; and
- (f) prescribe the fees to be charged for inquiries into complaints regarding the delivery of or payment for value-payable postal articles.

(3) Postal articles shall be made over to the post office for the purpose of being sent as “value-payable”, and shall be delivered, when so sent, at such times and in such manner as the Director-General may, by order, from time to time appoint.

(4) No suit or other legal proceeding shall be instituted against the Government or any officer of the post office in respect of anything done, or in good faith purporting to be done, under any rule made under clause(e) of sub-section (2).

<Amendment 05.10.1960>

36. (1) Where arrangements are in force with [any] foreign country, for the transmission by post of registered, insured or value-payable postal articles between the Union of Myanmar and [such country], the President of the Union may make rules to give effect to such arrangements.

(2) In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may prescribe-

(a) the form of declaration to be made by the senders of such postal articles as aforesaid; and

(b) the fees to be charged in respect thereof.

<Amendment 18.06.1989>

CHAPTER VII.

UNDELIVERED POSTAL ARTICLES.

37. (1) The President of the Union may make rules as to the disposal of postal articles which for any reason cannot be delivered (hereinafter referred to as “undelivered postal articles”).

(2). In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may-

(a) prescribe the period during which undelivered postal articles at a post office shall remain in that office; and

(b) provide for the publication of lists of undelivered postal articles, or of any class of undelivered postal articles.

(3) Every undelivered postal article, after being detained at a post office for the period prescribed by rule under the foregoing provisions of this section, shall be either forwarded, free of further charge, to the post office at which it was posted, for return to the sender, or sent to the office of the Director-General.

<Amendment 05.10.1960>

38. (1) Every postal article received at the office of the Director-General under sub-section (3) of section 37 shall be dealt with as follows:-

- (a) if practicable, it shall be redirected and forwarded by post to the addressee; or,
- (b) if it cannot be redirected and forwarded as aforesaid, it shall be opened by some officer, appointed by the Director-General in this behalf and bound to secrecy, in order to ascertain the name and address of the sender.

(2) If the name and address of the sender are so ascertained, it shall be returned by post to the sender, free of further charge or subject to such further charge as the President of the Union may, by rule, direct.

<Amendment 05.10.1960>

39. Undelivered postal articles which cannot be disposed of under the foregoing provisions shall be detained in the office of the Director-General for such further period (if any), and shall be dealt with in such manner, as the President of the Union may, by rule, direct:

Provided that-

- (a) letters and postcards shall be destroyed;
- (b) money or saleable property, not being of a perishable nature, found in any undelivered postal article, shall be detained for a period of one year in the office of the Director-General, and, if on the expiration of that period no person has established his right thereto, shall, if money, be credited to the post office, and, if saleable property, be sold, the sale-proceeds being credited to the post office.

<Amendment 05.10.1960>

CHAPTER VIII.

SHIP AND AIRCRAFT LETTERS.

40. The master of a ship, not being a mail ship [and the pilot or other person in charge of an aircraft, not being a mail aircraft,] about to depart from any port or place in the Union of Myanmar to any port or place within, or any port or place beyond, the Union of Myanmar, shall receive on board any mail bag tendered to him by any officer of the post office for conveyance, granting a receipt therefor in such form as the President of the Union may, by rule, prescribe, and shall, without delay, deliver the same at the port or place of destination.

<Amendment 18.06.1989>

41. (1) The master of a ship [or the pilot or other person in charge of an aircraft] arriving at any port or place in the Union of Myanmar shall, without delay, cause every postal article or mail bag on board which is directed to that port or place, and is within the exclusive privilege conferred on the President of the Union by section 4, to be delivered either at the post office at that port or place or to some officer of the post office authorized in this behalf by the Director-General.

(2) If there is on board any postal article or mail bag which is directed to any other place within the Union of Myanmar, and is within the exclusive privilege aforesaid, [the master or pilot or other person as aforesaid] shall, without delay, report the fact to the officer in charge of the post office at the port or place of arrival and act according to the directions he may receive from such officer, and the receipt of such officer shall discharge him from all further responsibility in respect of the postal article or mail bag.

<Amendment 05.10.1960, 18.06.1989>

42. The President of the Union may, by notification in the Gazette, declare what gratuities shall be allowed to masters of ships, not being mail ships [or pilots or other persons in charge of aircraft, not being mailair craft,] in respect of postal articles received by them for conveyance on behalf of the post office: and the master of a ship, not being a mail ship [or pilot or other person in charge of an aircraft, not being a mail aircraft,] about to leave any port or place in the Union of Myanmar as aforesaid shall, if he receives on board a mail bag for conveyance, be entitled to demand and obtain immediately the amount of the gratuity payable under this section in respect of the mail bag and its contents.

<Amendment 18.06.1989>

CHAPTER IX.

MONEY ORDERS.

43. (1) The President of the Union may provide for the remitting of small sums of money through the post office by means of money-orders, and may make rules as to such money-orders.
- (2) In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may prescribe-
- (a) the limit of amount for which money- orders may be issued;
 - (b) the period during which money-orders shall remain current; and
 - (c) the rates of commission or the fees to be charged on money-orders or in respect thereof.
44. (1) Subject to such conditions as the President of the Union may, by rules made under section 43, prescribe in respect of the levy of additional rates of commission or fees or any other matters, a person remitting money through the post office by means of a money-order may require that the amount of the order, if not paid to the payee, be repaid to him, or be paid to such person other than the original payee as he may direct.

(2) If neither the payee nor the remitter of a money-order can be found, and if within the period of one year from the date of the issue of the order no claim is made by such payee or remitter, the amount of such order shall not be claimable from the Government.

45. The President of the Union may authorize the issue, in such form as may be suitable, of money-orders, to be called postal-orders or by such other designation as may be deemed appropriate, for certain fixed amounts, and may make rules as to the rates of commission to be charged thereon and the manner in which, and conditions subject to which, they may be issued, paid and cancelled:

Provided that no such order shall be issued for an amount in excess of one hundred kyats.

<Amendment 10.09.1977>

46. (1) Where arrangements are in force with any foreign country, for the issue and payment through the post office of money-orders between the Union of Myanmar and such country, the President of the Union may make rules to give effect to such arrangements.

(2) In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may prescribe-

(a) the manner in which, and the conditions subject to which, such orders may be issued and paid in the Union of Myanmar; and

(b) the rates of commission to be charged thereon.

<Amendment 10.09.1977, 18.06.1989>

47. If any person, without reasonable excuse, the burden of proving which shall lie on him, neglects or refuses to refund-

(a) any amount paid to him in respect of a money-order by an officer of the post office in excess of what ought to have been paid to him in respect thereof, or

(b) the amount of a money-order paid by an officer of the post office to him instead of to some other person to whom it ought to have been paid, such amount shall be recoverable by an officer of the post office authorized by the Director-General in this behalf from the person so neglecting or refusing as if it were an arrear of land-revenue due from him.

<Amendment 05.10.1960>

48. No suit or other legal proceeding shall be instituted against the Government or any officer of the post office in respect of-

- (a) anything done under any rules made by the President of the Union under this Chapter; or
- (b) the wrong payment of a money-order caused by incorrect or incomplete information given by the remitter as to the name and address of the payee, provided that, as regards incomplete information, there was reasonable justification for accepting the information as a sufficient description for the purpose of identifying the payee; or
- (c) the payment of any money-order being refused or delayed by, or on account of, any accidental neglect, omission or mistake by, or on the part of, an officer of the post office, or for any other cause whatsoever other than the fraud or wilful act or default of such officer; or
- (d) any wrong payment of a money-order after the expiration of one year from the date of the issue of the order; or
- (e) any wrong payment or delay in payment of a money-order beyond the limits of the Union of Myanmar by an officer of any post office, not being one established by the President of the Union.

<Amendment 18.06.1989>

CHAPTER X.

PENALTIES AND PROCEDURE.

Offences by Officers of the Post Office.

49. Whoever, being employed to carry or deliver any mail bag or any postal article in course of transmission by post,-
- (a) is in a state of intoxication while so employed, or
 - (b) is guilty of carelessness or other misconduct whereby the safety of any such mail bag or postal article as aforesaid is endangered, or
 - (c) loiters or makes delay in the conveyance or delivery of any such mail bag or postal article as aforesaid, or
 - (d) does not use due care and diligence safely to convey or deliver any such mail bag or postal article as aforesaid,
- shall be punishable with fine which may extend to fifty rupees.
50. Whoever, being employed to carry or deliver any mail bag or any postal article in course of transmission by post, voluntarily withdraws from the duties of his office ,without permission or without having given one month's previous notice in writing, shall be punishable with imprisonment which may extend to one month, or with fine which may extend to fifty rupees, or with both.

51. Whoever, being employed to carry or deliver any postal article in course of transmission by post and required while so employed to keep any register, makes, or causes or suffers to be made, any false entry in the register with intent to induce the belief that he has visited a place, or delivered a postal article, which he has not visited or delivered, shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or with fine which may extend to one hundred rupees, or with both.
52. Whoever, being an officer of the post office, commits theft in respect of, or dishonestly misappropriates, or, for any purpose whatsoever, secretes, destroys or throws away, any postal article in course of transmission by post or anything contained therein, shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to seven years, and shall also be punishable with fine.
53. Whoever, being an officer of the post office, contrary to his duty opens, or causes or suffers to be opened, any postal article in course of transmission by post, or wilfully detains or delays, or causes or suffers to be detained or delayed, any such postal article, shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to two years, or with fine, or with both:
- Provided that nothing in this section shall extend to the opening, detaining or delaying of any postal article under the authority of this Act or in obedience to the order in writing of the President of the Union or the direction of a competent Court.
54. Whoever, being an officer of the post office,-
- (a) fraudulently puts any wrong official mark on a postal article, or
 - (b) fraudulently alters, removes or causes to disappear any official mark which is on a postal article, or
 - (c) being entrusted with the delivery of any postal article, knowingly demands or receives any sum of money in respect of the postage thereof which is not chargeable under this Act,
- shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to two years, and shall also be punishable with fine.
55. Whoever, being an officer of the post office entrusted with the preparing or keeping of any document, fraudulently prepares the document incorrectly, or alters or secretes or destroys the document shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to two years, and shall also be punishable with fine.

56. Whoever, being an officer of the post office, sends by post, or puts into any mail bag, any postal article upon which postage has not been paid or charged in the manner prescribed by this Act, intending thereby to defraud the Government of the postage on such postal article, shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to two years, and shall also be punishable with fine.

57.*

58. (1) Whoever-

- (a) conveys, otherwise than by post, a letter within the exclusive privilege conferred on the President of the Union by section 4, or
- (b) performs any service incidental to conveying, otherwise than by post, any letter within the exclusive privilege aforesaid, or
- (c) sends, or tenders or delivers in order to be sent, otherwise than by post, a letter within the exclusive privilege aforesaid, or
- (d) makes a collection of letters excepted from the exclusive privilege aforesaid for the purpose of sending them otherwise than by post, shall be punishable with fine which may extend to fifty rupees for every such letter.

(2) Whoever, having already been convicted of an offence under this section, is again convicted thereunder, shall, on every such subsequent conviction, be punishable with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees.

(3) In any prosecution under clause (d) of sub-section (1) it may be presumed unless and until the contrary is proved, that if more than five letters excepted under clause (e) of sub-section (1) of section 4 are sent by a private friend in his way, journey or travel, possession of them amounts to making a collection of letters.

<Amendment 02.10.1956>

59. (1) Whoever, in contravention of the provisions of section 5, carries, receives, tenders or delivers letters, or collects letters, shall be punishable with fine which may extend to fifty rupees for every such letter.

(2) Whoever, having already been convicted of an offence under this section, is again convicted thereunder, shall, on every such subsequent conviction, be punishable with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees.

60. Whoever, being appointed to sell postage stamps,-

- (a) takes from any purchaser for any postage stamp or quantity of postage stamps a price higher than that fixed by any rule made under section 16, sub-section (3), clause (a), shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or with fine which may extend to two hundred rupees, or with both; or
- (b) commits a breach of any other rule made under section 16, shall be punishable with fine which may extend to two hundred rupees.
61. (1) Whoever, in contravention of the provisions of section 19 or section 20, sends or tenders, or makes over in order to be sent by post, any postal article or any thing shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to one year, or with fine, or with both.
- (2) The detention in the post office of any postal article on the ground of its having been sent in contravention of the provisions of section 19 or section 20 shall not exempt the sender from any proceedings which might have been taken if the postal article had been delivered in due course of post.
62. Whoever places in or against any letter-box provided by the post office for the reception of postal articles any fire, match or light, any explosive, dangerous, filthy, noxious or deleterious substance, or any fluid, or commits a nuisance in or against any such letter-box, or does anything likely to injure any such letter-box or its appurtenances or contents, shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to one year, or with fine, or with both.
63. Whoever, without due authority, affixes any placard, advertisement, notice, list, document, board or other thing in or on, or paints, tars or in any way disfigures any post office, or any letter-box provided by the post office for the reception of postal articles, shall be punishable with fine which may extend to fifty rupees.
64. Whoever, being required by this Act to make a declaration in respect of any postal article to be sent by post or the contents or value thereof, makes in his declaration any statement which he knows, or has reason to believe, to be false, or does not believe to be true, shall be punishable with fine which may extend to two hundred rupees, and, if the false declaration is made for the purpose of defrauding the Government, with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees.
65. Whoever, [being the master of a ship or the pilot or other person in charge of an aircraft,]-
- (a) fails to comply with the provisions of section 40, or,

(b) without reasonable excuse, the burden of proving which shall lie on him, fails to deliver any postal article or mail bag or to comply with the directions of the officer in charge of the post office at a port of arrival, as required by section 41, shall be punishable with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees.

66. (1) Whoever, being either the master of a ship [or pilot or other person in charge of an aircraft] arriving at any port or place in the Union of Myanmar or any one on board, knowingly has in his baggage or in his possession or custody, after the postal articles on board or any of them have been sent to the post office at the [port or place of arrival,] any postal article within the exclusive privilege conferred on the President of the Union by section 4, shall be punishable with fine which may extend to fifty rupees for every such postal article as aforesaid.

(2) Whoever, [being such master, pilot or other person as aforesaid or anyone on board,] detains any such postal article as aforesaid after demand made for it by an officer of the post office shall be punishable with fine which may extend to one hundred rupees for every such postal article.

<Amendment 18.06.1989>

67. Whoever, except under the authority of this Act or of any other Act for the time being in force or in obedience to the order in writing of the President of the Union or the direction of a competent Court, detains the mails or any postal article in course of transmission by post, or on any pretence opens a mail bag in course of transmission by post, shall be punishable with fine which may extend to two hundred rupees:

Provided that nothing in this section shall prevent the detention of an officer of the post office carrying the mails or any postal article in course of transmission by post, on a charge of having committed an offence declared to be cognizable by the Code of Criminal Procedure or any other law for the time being in force.

68. Whoever fraudulently retains, or wilfully secretes or makes away with, or keeps or detains, or, when required by an officer of the post office, neglects or refuses to deliver up, any postal article in course of transmission by post which ought to have been delivered to any other person, or a mail bag containing a postal article, shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to two years, and shall also be punishable with fine.

69. Whoever, not being an officer of the post office, wilfully and maliciously, with intent to injure any person, either opens or causes to be opened any letter which ought to have been delivered, or does any act whereby the due delivery of a letter to any person is prevented or impeded, shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees, or with both:

Provided that nothing in this section shall apply to a person who does any act to which the section applies if he is a parent, or in the position of a parent or guardian, of the addressee, and the addressee is a minor or a ward.

General.

70. Whoever abets the commission of any offence punishable under this Act, or attempts to commit any offence so punishable, shall be punishable with the punishment provided for that offence.
71. In every prosecution for an offence in respect of a mail bag or of any postal article sent by post, it shall be sufficient, for the purpose of the charge, to describe the mail bag or postal article as being the property of the post office, and it shall not be necessary to prove that the mail bag or postal article was of any value.
72. No Court shall take cognizance of an offence punishable under any of the provisions of sections 51, 53, 54 clauses (a) and (b), 55, 56, 58, 59, 61, 64, 65, 66 and 67 of this Act, unless upon complaint made by order of, or under authority from, the Director-General.

<Amendment 05.10.1960>

CHAPTER XI.

SUPPLEMENTAL.

73. (1) The President of the Union may make rules for the management of any district post.
- (2) In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may declare what portions of this Act shall be applicable to district posts and to the persons employed in connection therewith.
74. (1) In addition to the powers hereinbefore conferred, the President of the Union may make rules to carry out any of the purposes and objects of this Act.
- (2) In making any rule under this Act, the President of the Union may direct that a breach of it shall be punishable with fine which may extend to fifty rupees.
- (3) All rules made by the President of the Union under this Act shall be published in the Gazette and, on such publication, shall have effect as if enacted by this Act.

75. The President of the Union may, by notification in the Gazette, authorize, either absolutely or subject to conditions, the Director-General to exercise any of the powers conferred upon the President of the Union by this Act, other than a power to make rules.
